Real America
Citizens' Rights Abroad
Sharing Speculation
It's So Easy

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

Real American country, Colorado, Idaho, the Dakotas, Washington, Nevada are your neighbors in this part of the world. As what it is, a great and powerful country. Straight walls of stone, with pine trees, hundreds of miles long. Telephone and telegraph lines cross in all directions. Automobile roads run beside the mountains, in single file, picking their way through the snow, patiently building a path that will feed the East.

Why of the trip is the greatest engine, the most powerful speed in the world, needed to pull a train of heavy Pullman cars over Sherman, 8,018 feet above sea level. The engine, called "type 7000," is 100 feet long. It can make 100 miles an hour and weighs 282,000 pounds. Automatic electric current, instead of steam, is used for the work of this big locomotive. It will take its place among the engines of the past.

BONFILS' Denver Post, covering this part of the country as snow covers the ground, brings pleasing information from Washington. The State Department, it appears, has told American citizens that they are not to be subject to confiscatory Mexican legislation. Legitimate investments in other countries, and that news will be Americans.

THIS country owes a firm attitude in the matter to foreign nations as well as to its own citizens. Under the Monroe Doctrine, we notify Europe to keep her hands off these two American continents. Left to herself, Great Britain would promptly send the necessary equipment to protect British interests in Mexico.

It is a fact that Europe must not maintain her own rights by force in this part of the world, the least we can do is to insist upon recognition of such rights.

WE can justify to Europe, "You must not take a foot of American territory." But we have no right to say, "You must allow yourself to be treated, or your property, honestly acquired, confiscated by retroactive legislation."

THE State Department will have public support in its demand that property rights of Americans be respected in Mexico, as property rights of Mexicans are respected in the United States.

As to the statement that some American concessions have been fraudulently obtained in Mexico, there is nothing improbable about that, and such concessions should suffer the fate of all other fraud.

WALL STREET speculators show an overwhelming confidence in the Interstate Commerce Commission's judgment on railroad values. On Monday the supreme court said the Interstate Commerce Commission has power to fix the value of railroads.

Speculators turned foolish and threw the board overboard. This isn't a government to knock down values, and keep poor little railroads from making an honest penny.

THE law says that prosperous railroads may earn so much, no more, and they are really worth the surplus to be "recaptured" by the government and used helping weak railroads. It can't make sense. The idea is to go in a way that the big roads lose, letting profits of the big roads go to the government.

NEW YORK and Chicago make big losses in little fancy postoffices that cannot support themselves.

SOME of it is admitted that our public men are not competent or honest enough to manage railroads under government ownership, the next best thing would be to have all railroads under private management, the people regulate rates fairly, insisting on service everywhere, the control ownership gets its profits in one place to take care of its losses in another. Economy of concentrated operation, alone, could pay all losses.

London, Feb. 23.—In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of new suitings. So lately American Beau Brummels, however you will have to dress in 1927, according to the dictates of Savile row and the Conduit street, which claim to be the

Night Coughs

Stopped in 15 Minutes

Almost always coughing is caused by an irritated and inflamed throat or bronchial tubes, which cough syrups and patent medicines do not touch. But a famous physician's prescription recently discovered called Thoxine goes direct to the cause, relieves the inflamed membranes and stops the cough almost instantly. One swallow does the work and the remarkable thing about it is that it contains no dope, chloroform or harmful drugs. Once used you will never be without it. Pleasant taste. Safe for children. 35c, 50c and $1.00. Sold at Bradley's Drug Store, Weimer's and all good drug stores.—Adv.

GET PLAN TO WEED OUT STATE WORKERS STARTED

Lieutenant Governor Bloom Selects Senators To Serve on Committee

Columbus, Feb. 23.—Legislative leaders today were paying the way for a joint legislative probe of state departments with a view to weeding out useless, or inefficient employees, and raising salaries of deserving ones.

The house this afternoon is expected to concur in minor amendments made in the senate late Tuesday to the Ackerman-Hall resolution, providing for this legislative investigating committee which is to submit its report by March 31, next year.

Lieut. Gov. Earl D. Bloom selected Senators Ackerman, Cuyahoga County; Marshall, Cuyahoga; De Armond, Butler, Nickels, Tuscarawas, and Kummer, Preble, as members of the committee. House members have not been chosen.

MUCH POWER USED
A circular bank of high power vacuum tubes, capable of delivering 2,000,000 watts of power, is the final amplifier through which the voice of a person telephoning by wire from New York is forced through the ether over the Atlantic to London. The coils encircling the base of the bank carry gallons of ice cold water to the base of the tubes, thereby preventing tubes from melting under the tremendous heat they generate.

A Benefactor

A public benefactor is one who helps people to be happy. Such a man was Dr. R. V. Pierce.

It is impossible to be happy if you are suffering—in pain or distress—ill. To restore health and strength to ailing people was Dr. Pierce's mission. During his lifetime, he gave to the world a priceless herbal remedy in his Favorite Prescription, for restoring the health of weak, nervous, over-worked women, and thereby increasing happiness in the home.

As a skilled physician, an honored citizen, Dr. Pierce was known far and near for integrity and fair dealing. His phenomenal success was due to the unquestioned purity of his medicines.

Women in every walk of life today say Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has relieved them of nervousness, weakness and kindred ills. It is a reliable medicine made from roots and herbs, sold by druggists, in both fluid and tablet form. Send 10c for trial pkg. tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Cuban Ambassador Hopeful of Tariff Wall's Downfall

Such Action Would Mean Real Pan-American Union, Says Ferrara

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Dr. Orestes Ferrara, Cuban ambassador in Washington, was discussing his country's plans for the 15th anniversary of its independence, May 20.

He dwelt upon Cuba's debt to gratitude to the United States and upon the strength of the friendship between the two peoples.

"And what," I asked, "is your chief hope for their joint future?"

"The overthrow of every tariff wall between them," answered the ambassador—"as a first step toward the leveling of all tariff walls between all the republics of all the Americas."

"A REAL Pan American Union," cried the doctor enthusiastically.

"Such a treaty between the United States and Cuba," he continued, "would cost you, in this country, just one and only one thing—"

"Perhaps as much as three-quarters of your investment of about $250,000,000 in domestic sugar production."

"But your sugar would cost you less by $100,000,000 yearly."

"Within two years your loss would have been wiped out completely."

"But how about the loss of $100,000,000 to the sugar investors who actually lost it?" I suggested. "They certainly couldn't eat sugar enough in two years to save $100,000,000 on it."

"Well, you could easily afford to indemnify them," replied the doctor, "out of the saving to the rest of your public."

DR. FERRARA'S program really does have something fascinating about it to those he has suggested it to. I have heard it mentioned with interest several times in recent weeks and the doctor hasn't been here long. Surely he came here to do his missionary work rapidly.

Nobody can fail to see that the kind of Pan American Union he proposes would give a wonderful fillip to trading among the Americas.

The Latin Americans naturally turn much more readily, as buyers, to Europe than to the United States, partly because they themselves are mostly of very recent European origin, partly because Europeans were first in the Latin American field, partly because they sell many things more cheaply than the United States and partly because they understand Latin American and give correspondingly better satisfaction.

All this has long placed North America at a disadvantage in the American market.

But the doctor plan would put the Latin American in a short order.

There would be a tremendous increase in the number of articles to be imported from the United States. Argentina meat and wool would be offered.

Probably the most important factor, however, Latin American raw products which the United States couldn't if it tried—like rubber, tin, tropical woods, raw cotton, wool, and other raw materials—would be offered to the United States at a tremendous advantage.

The doctor's plan would have a tremendous increase in the number of articles to be imported from the United States.

The southern and southern countries really seem to have been closed by nature—especially as the northern ones become more and more highly industrialized—to swap commodities with one another.

So the doctor's vision of the future does a considerable promise of attracting a great deal of attention before long and perhaps, finally, though hardly with United States sugar interest.

This Scientific Method Brings Quick Results

If your weight is "off normal" it may well be that your food is not being properly digested.

Some of the glands of your mouth and stomach or other vital organs may not be functioning properly. What you eat is not being turned into the real nourishment that your body needs. If you go on that way, you are endangering your whole future.

Act now to provide your digestive apparatus with the assistance it needs.

A remarkable stimulant- tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic." Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wineglass full before your next meal—see how much better you eat—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy.—Adv.

DEMOCRATS AND INSURGENTS IN NEW ALIGNMENT

Traveling Committee Is To Throw Searchlight on Nicaraguan Situation

Washington, Feb. 23—Machine guns, manned by U. S. Marines, have been placed aboard all trains running between Managua and Corinto, in Nicaragua, the state department announced today.

The railroad is owned by the Nicaraguan government.

Washington, Feb. 23—A senate investigation of the administration's Latin-American policy during the summer—conducted by a traveling committee of senators headed by William E. Borah—appeared probable today.

The purpose of such an investigation is two-fold. It is designed to throw a searchlight on the activities of American corporations below the Rio Grande, with particular reference to the banking and oil groups, and it is even more significantly designed to enable the senate foreign relations committee to have a deterring influence on any "war like" activities in Washington while congress is now in session.

Sponsors Resolution

Borah sponsored the resolution in the senate after first assuring himself of the support of most of the Democrats and the Insurgent Republicans, who were wholly out of sympathy with Secretary of State Kellogg's "big stick" policy in the Caribbean. A coalition of Democrats and Insurgent Republicans has shown itself capable of controlling the senate on a given occasion, and hence the outlook for authorization of the investigation appeared bright today.

Almost unlimited sweep would be accorded the committee in the investigation. It would have the right to travel throughout Central America, hold hearings at which witnesses could be subpoenaed and sworn, subpoena records and documents, and otherwise conduct a most searching inquiry.

Eight Protectorate

Borah, a most persistent critic of the state department's policy in Nicaragua and Mexico, was prompted to introduce the resolution because of the evident drift of the state department's policy toward the establishment of a permanent protectorate over Nicaragua—a development which he believes will inevitably inflame Latin-American sentiment against the United States from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn.

There have also been numerous rumors in Washington to the effect that the Mexican situation will become "acute" again soon after congress adjourns. These rumors have intimated that the state department is marking time in the Mexican situation until Secretary Kellogg's senatorial critics have scattered to their homes and that this policy will be abandoned for a "more vigorous" one soon after March 4. They have created a feeling of distinct uneasiness on the part of many senators who are opposed to the Kellogg policy, as reflected in the support already assured for Borah's resolution.

STRINGS ATTACHED TO $20,000 BALANCE, CLAIM

Excesses Must Be Credited to Funds in Which They Exist, Belief

Marion's municipal sinking fund, from which the city's annual debt payments are made, is to receive $20,000 additional revenue soon to help wipe out the $40,000 deficit anticipated for this year, according to information coming from City Auditor J. L. Landes, but it is indicated that the contribution will have some strings attached to it.

The $20,000, which is the estimated total of balances in street improvement construction accounts now on the auditor's books, must be credited to these same accounts when transferred to the sinking fund, according to opinions expressed today by several officials conversant with municipal financing.

The money has accumulated in accounts where bonds sold to pay for sewer, sidewalk and paving construction exceeded the actual cost of the improvements. These same accounts are entitled to the balances when the transfer to the sinking fund is made, officials say.

This will not prevent the money from being used in payment of general bonds and interest this year, however, so that the $20,000 is expected to actually figure in carrying the city through its present emergency.

Obtained, but it never held for long.

Barry Reported Frequently to the Senate on His Efforts to Round up the Missing Members.

Barry reported frequently to the senate on his efforts to round up the missing members. He first reported at 12:30 this morning that many of them "wouldn't come." The chamber laughed when Barry reported that Senator Keyes, Republican of New Hampshire, reported that he "would think it over." It was after this that writs of arrest were issued.

Senator Gooding, Republican of Idaho, was the first senator brought in after the writs were issued. At 2:15 o'clock Senator Ferris, Democrat of Michigan, arrived in custody of an officer, and at 2:30 o'clock Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri, was brought in. Reed was militant.

Going To Tell Them

"If I'm under arrest," he said, "I want to be charged with contempt. As soon as I can get the floor I intend to say what I think about this outrage."

Senator Good, Republican of West Virginia, and Grand, Republican of Virginia, were brought in at 4:46 o'clock, just as Ashurst relinquished the floor to await a quorum. At 5:50 o'clock a motion to adjourn was voted down, 15 to 17.

At 7:30 Senator Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, who had been in the chair all night, relinquished it to Senator Capper of Kansas, and went out to catch a nap on a couch.

At 8 o'clock Senator Johnson was asleep in his chair on the floor, with Senator Nye, Republican of North Dakota, sitting beside him ready to awaken him if a move to ditch the bill made its appearance.

Mrs. Johnson On Job

There were just four visitors in the galleries, one of these was Mrs. Johnson. She sat there throughout the night watching the battle on the floor. Shortly after 8 o'clock there were a number of arrivals. Ernst, Republican of Kentucky, Ramsdell, Democrat of Louisiana, Walsh, Democrat of Massachusetts, Watson, Republican of Indiana, Walsh, Democrat of Montana, Harrell, Republican of Oklahoma, and Dale, Republican of Vermont.

They were greeted by "Well, where have you been?" and "You should have been down early, it was a nice morning."

There was still no quorum.

Those who had been hauled from their beds were indignant, after arriving at the senate, to find what poor progress Barry was making in hauling others.

Goff Sarcastic

"All members should be here to listen to the wonderful speech the senator is making," sarcastically observed Goff, during the latter stages of Ashurst's speech. He inquired about Barry's progress.

At 8:45 o'clock there were still only 45 senators in the chamber, three less than a quorum, and the harassed and sleepy sergeants-at-arms were still roaming about the city in taxicabs hunting members.

At 9:07, a quorum was again at hand, and Senator Phipps, Republican of Colorado, took the floor to continue the filibuster. The senate again proceeded to business after twiddling its thumbs and sleeping since 4:46 o'clock.

DOG SEALS HIS OWN FATE BY SNAPPING AT SHERIFF

Municipal Judge Martin Decries Canine Must Be Banished or Killed

Death or banish from the city of Marion was decreed in Municipal Court last night for a dog which was alleged to have displayed dangerous and vicious tendencies.

This decision was made by Municipal Judge Martin after Sheriff James Deal testified that when he went to the Paul Sampson home at 38 First street to investigate the case, the dog in question darted out of the door and snapped at his leg.

Following this experience, the sheriff filed charges against Sampson charging him with harboring a vicious canine and Sampson pleaded not guilty. His hearing took place last night after the testimony of Deal and several other witnesses was heard, he was fined $10 and costs.

The fine was suspended, however, with the understanding that Sampson would display the animal either by having it killed or giving it to some one residing outside the city. He informed the court that he had already made arrangements to transfer the animal to a man living in the country and that if this plan falls through, the dog will be killed.

Sheriff Deal says that his attention was first called to the case by persons who complained that the dog had snapped at them. It was then that he went to the Sampson home to investigate, and when the door was opened the dog attempted to dissect a section of his trousers' leg, the sheriff testified.

Organization Topic

Organization was also the topic of Mr. Clark in his morning address.

Organization was also the topic of Mr. Clark in his morning address. "It is pretty hard to get the ear of any body of men," said Mr. Clark "unless they know you are organized and they know what your wants and desires are."

Buying and selling as a unit have wrought mighty changes in the lot of the farmers who have joined the farm bureau, Mr. Clark said. On the buying end, he said, he discovered in his own farm work that he could buy in the open market, but cheaper than he could buy by carload lots. He mentioned his own experiences in purchasing fertilizer, which he had purchased in carloads direct. Despite the fact that he could get a good price for this method, he found that through the farm bureau he could buy quantities still cheaper.

In selling farm products Mr. Clark called attention to the strange rule that the farmer must sell at the price that is offered and buy at the price that is asked. If he takes hops to market, he said, he must sell them at the price the shipper offers, but if he takes his money to a retail store he must pay the price that is asked by the merchant for whatever he wants to buy.

Organization will get more than any relief legislation," Mr. Clark said. "All that we farmers have to do is to ask the government to treat us as fairly as it treats other classes and then solve our own problems through organization."

Cities Danger

The danger in farm legislation which guards the interest of the farmer, Mr. Clark said, is that it may lead to the government to treat us as fairly as it treats other classes and then solve our own problems through organization.

ITALIAN STILL HELD IN KIDNAP ATTEMPT CASE

Police Continue Investigation of Mysterious Early Morning Attack on Girls

Pete Castango, 35, arrested early yesterday morning as a suspect in connection with the alleged attempt to kidnap Miss Esther Huffman, 21, of 109 E. Center, is still held at the city prison while local police continue their investigation of the mystery.

Yesterday Miss Huffman and other members of her family were unable positively to identify Castango as the man who entered the Huffman home early Sunday morning, although they stated that there is a close resemblance, because of this uncertainty regarding identification and lack of other evidence, Chief of Police Thompson is considering ordering Castango's release. It is likely that a decision will be reached some time today.

Castango is a former employee of the Hannon Ice Co. and lived in a bunkhouse near the ice plant, which is located west of the Huffman home.

the world when he knows he has reached a worthless clerk or worse, feels no one," says the famous detective. "The same during cases that appeal to the flapper as those of a bold, slightly aroused, but oh, mercy, lover, attract the detective, too."

In other words, you can't erase that look of having pushed someone into the river by using varnish on your hair.

But here is a suggestion.

If you are a bit nervous and fear a sleepless night as a result of having used the guest towel, just borrow a gun from the officer for your companionship.

Jake Nesbitt feared bodily harm while the officers were trying to connect him with the murder and expressed his fears to Slater. The latter, leaving him for the night, obligingly handed Nesbitt his gun—or laid it on the table.

And the funny part of it was that the gun was loaded—if you get any laughs out of a loaded gun, even when it is handed to you, but first or laid on the drawing room table among the dinner mints, cigars and what have you, one deduces from Slater's views that there is really no need to feel nervous before a detective if you aren't guilty.

And if you are, just remember where you were the night before, ask your legal companion for his gun and let the law take its course.

Morning while sergeants-at-arms were still scurrying through the highways and byways of Washington trying to round up absentee members.

Determined to break a filibuster against the Dam Bill, the western friends of the measure, led by Johnson, of California, kept the senate in session throughout the night.

Carried Warrants

At 7 o'clock this morning there were only 31 senators present, 17 less than a quorum, and the sergeants-at-arms were still unsuccessfully trying to get members into the chamber. Through out the night the harried officers of Sergeant-at-Arms Barry had scoured the city by taxicabs and telephone, with warrants for the arrest of absent members. It was the first time in a generation that such tactics had been resorted to.

Motion after motion to adjourn was regularly voted down as the night wore on.

Cameron held the floor for five hours, and then turned it over to his colleague, Arthur, who talked until past daylight. He then relinquished it until a quorum could be obtained. Several times during the night a quorum was dently farmers are not getting sufficient return to maintain their agricultural plants, including building repair and other maintenance. They have not found it profitable to maintain the land in improved farms or under cultivation in the face of their net return. In spite of a large gain in population in other than rural sections the per capita acreage of crops planted has declined since 1909 and since 1907 the yield per acre has declined.

Mr. Lincoln told his audience that no form of legislation can cure all these ills. Most of them, in his opinion will have to be tackled in a systematic way by farmers themselves.

"It is almost entirely up to the farmer with the helpful co-operation of other groups to improve this situation," Mr. Lincoln said. "Only a supreme effort and thorough organization on the part of farmers themselves will put agriculture back on its feet within a reasonable length of time."

Afternoon Session

At the afternoon session of the farm bureau Mr. Lincoln took up the farm situation as it pertains to the farmers themselves, and again reviewed the figures he had given before and drew conclusions that have been brought out by leaders in farm problem discussion throughout the nation.

He touched on the McNary-Hangen bill, now in the hands of President Coolidge, and said that it might or might not bring the expected relief to the farmers. The measure has brought a great division of opinion among farmers, he said, but it is the opinion of many that legislation is not the only thing that farmers need to better their standing. The problem demands organization, he said, that has been so successful in application to American busi-

MORE THAN 50 MARION BARBERS SUPPORT BILL

Attend Session of Legislature When Proposal Is Submitted

Many barber shops throughout the city were closed yesterday and a delegation of more than 50 barbers, members of the barbers union went to Columbus to be present at the introduction of a bill into the house of the legislature, which would give the state control over the barber business.

The bill is sponsored by the Master Barbers' Association of America, and is aimed, its advocates claim at creating better sanitary conditions in barber shops. The bill would create a state board to enforce the provisions of the bill. A year's training in an accredited barber school is one of the provisions of the bill, and professional and physical examinations would be necessary for each barber.

The local delegation was headed by William Knight, president of Local No. 128, and John L. Jolley, secretary of the union here. More than 700 persons, barbers and others interested in the bill, attended the session of the legislature. Clifford Lower, Marion drug store, talked in favor of the bill, which was introduced by Representative Marshall of Cincinnati. L. E. McElvaine, of Chicago, national secretary of the Master Barbers' Association, and George E. Kearns, Cincinnati attorney, talked for the bill.

The measure was referred to the code committee of the house, of which Rep. H. S. Hill, of Marion, is a member. Action by this committee was expected today in reporting the bill back to the house.

DETAIN DOCTOR AFTER MURDER OF HIS WIFE

Woman Found Clubbed to Death, Husband Tells Authorities

Detroit, Feb. 23.—After a night's waiting, Dr. Frank Loomis still was detained by police today for further questioning in the slaying of his wife, Grace, 34, found clubbed to death in the parlor of their home.

Dr. Loomis reported that he discovered his wife's body in the middle of the floor when he returned from a short walk.

Dr. Loomis' coat was marked with blood. He explained that he got it on his coat when he lifted his wife's body before he learned she was dead.

Robbery Not Motive
The house and furniture were not touched with blood. A window pane in the parlor was broken. The glass had fallen to the outside. Officers assume it had been broken by a blow from within.

Two children, Janet, 6, and Frank, 8, were found asleep in their bed up stairs.

The fact that $100 which Dr. Loomis said he gave his wife could not be found led the doctor to suggest that robbery might have been the motive of the slaying. This theory was weak, however, by the presence of three valuable rings on Mrs. Loomis' fingers, police say.

Behind the Screen

ALMA RUBEN'S chubbish dreams are being realized now. When a youngster she used to make her dolls after famous actors and actresses and dream of the time when other children would name their dolls after her.

Determined to become an actress, she applied for and got the job of leading lady in Douglas Fairbanks, "The Half Breed." She is one of the few stars who never has had the experience of "gate crashing" as an extra. All her knowledge of the technique of the screen has been learned in leading roles.

After finishing her work in the Fairbanks picture she visited Canada, England, Germany, France and the Orient. Recently she has been playing in Fox productions. Mrs. Ruben's first picture this season was "Marriage License" and at present she is working on "The Heart of Solomon."

HOW will the present day movie stars fare if the talking movie supersedes the silent variety in the near future? One wonders after viewing "personal appearances" of popular players which have been horrible fops.

A great many movie players never have had either stage experience or voice training. When called on to make a short talk they often are ill at ease and their speaking voices are, for the most part, disappointing.

Listening to the radio broadcasting of scenes from "Knockout Reilly" the other night convinced us still further that the screen player will find talking movies a decided handicap if not disastrous to their future. Richard Dix was most theatrical in speaking the lines which had been assigned to him and the director, Mal St. Clair, was decidedly nervous each time when he came before the "make." Mary Brian spoke only a few words, but her short scene with Dix at the ring side didn't ring as true as if a stage actress had spoken the lines.

All this discussion casts no reflection on Mr. Dix or Miss Brian. They are primarily screen performers, dependent on all their faculties except voice. We merely desire to point out that a great many of the present day screen idols have a lot to learn and much hard work lies ahead if they are to make a success in "talking movies," should the time come.

June Marlowe has been chosen for the feminine lead in "Thunderbolts," starring Rex the wild horse in his first picture for Universal. His former owner was Hal Roach.

Universal plans to make five air pictures during the coming season. One will be a special production, "The American Eagle." The other four will feature Al Wilson, stunt aviator.

Jack Bennett, heavyweight boxer, who squares off with Richard Dix in the scenes of "Knockout Reilly," may remain in pictures. He's getting $2,000 a week from Famous Players and they like his work so well they may sign him for future films as a "heavy."

Hoot Gibson in announcing he is tired of making the old style "westerns," demanded better stories before he would report for work again at the Universal lot.

Mary Astor still refuses to bob her long red hair. She insists she'll wear a wig if ever cast in a role calling for short locks. Mary'll sacrifice most anything for the sake of art.

Babe Daniels' next picture is to be filmed against a Spanish background. It is called "Senorita."

STATE FIRE MARSHAL AGENT PROBING BLAZE

Investigating Cause of Blast Which Partially Wrecked Senate-st House

An investigation of the attempt to burn down a double house at 178-180 Senate-st last week, which resulted in the building being partially wrecked when gasoline used to start the fire exploded, was launched here today by Inspector Kimberlin of the state fire marshal's office. He is being assisted in the investigation by Fire Chief T. J. McFarland.

Although authorities state that definite clues regarding identity of the firebugs are lacking, they hope to uncover information which will eventually solve the mystery.

Most of the plastering throughout the 12-room building was ripped from the walls and many of the windows were demolished by the force of the explosion, which occurred shortly after midnight, Feb. 16. In preparing to fire the building, incendiaries had poured gasoline on woodwork in most of the 12 rooms and in the hallways.

Causes Wreck
Fires were started at 10 different points and ignited vapor coming from the gasoline, causing a blast which awakened persons living in the neighborhood. Prompt arrival of firemen resulted in the flames being checked so that the loss from fire was comparatively small. The total damage was estimated at about $1,000.

The building is owned and is formerly occupied by Mrs. E. E. Gaylord, now a resident of Lakewood. Mrs. Gaylord has informed officials that she is not aware of having any enemies upon whom suspicion might center.

Behind the Screen

ALMA RUBEN'S chubbish dreams are being realized now. When a youngster she used to make her dolls after famous actors and actresses and dream of the time when other children would name their dolls after her.

Determined to become an actress, she applied for and got the job of leading lady in Douglas Fairbanks, "The Half Breed." She is one of the few stars who never has had the experience of "gate crashing" as an extra. All her knowledge of the technique of the screen has been learned in leading roles.

After finishing her work in the Fairbanks picture she visited Canada, England, Germany, France and the Orient. Recently she has been playing in Fox productions. Mrs. Ruben's first picture this season was "Marriage License" and at present she is working on "The Heart of Solomon."

HOW will the present day movie stars fare if the talking movie supersedes the silent variety in the near future? One wonders after viewing "personal appearances" of popular players which have been horrible fops.

A great many movie players never have had either stage experience or voice training. When called on to make a short talk they often are ill at ease and their speaking voices are, for the most part, disappointing.

Listening to the radio broadcasting of scenes from "Knockout Reilly" the other night convinced us still further that the screen player will find talking movies a decided handicap if not disastrous to their future. Richard Dix was most theatrical in speaking the lines which had been assigned to him and the director, Mal St. Clair, was decidedly nervous each time when he came before the "make." Mary Brian spoke only a few words, but her short scene with Dix at the ring side didn't ring as true as if a stage actress had spoken the lines.

All this discussion casts no reflection on Mr. Dix or Miss Brian. They are primarily screen performers, dependent on all their faculties except voice. We merely desire to point out that a great many of the present day screen idols have a lot to learn and much hard work lies ahead if they are to make a success in "talking movies," should the time come.

June Marlowe has been chosen for the feminine lead in "Thunderbolts," starring Rex the wild horse in his first picture for Universal. His former owner was Hal Roach.

Universal plans to make five air pictures during the coming season. One will be a special production, "The American Eagle." The other four will feature Al Wilson, stunt aviator.

Jack Bennett, heavyweight boxer, who squares off with Richard Dix in the scenes of "Knockout Reilly," may remain in pictures. He's getting $2,000 a week from Famous Players and they like his work so well they may sign him for future films as a "heavy."

Hoot Gibson in announcing he is tired of making the old style "westerns," demanded better stories before he would report for work again at the Universal lot.

Mary Astor still refuses to bob her long red hair. She insists she'll wear a wig if ever cast in a role calling for short locks. Mary'll sacrifice most anything for the sake of art.

Babe Daniels' next picture is to be filmed against a Spanish background. It is called "Senorita."

NOTE!!

FRED THOMSON, famous Western player who has risen from practical obscurity to stardom within two short years, has made a startling departure from ordinary "Western" practice in basing his latest production on the activities of the carpetbaggers in California immediately following the acquisition of that state from Spain in 1848. The picture has an immense historical as well as entertainment value, and is the most pretentious film Thomson has yet made.

The Agony of Rheumatism

"Money Back" Says Bradley's Drug Store If the First Bottle Allenchu Fails. Do You More Good Than Anything You Ever Used.

"It does not matter whether you are disabled with cured rheumatism or have only occasional twinges." Nine times out of ten Allenchu will ease the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and help to reduce the swollen joints.

Allenchu is no loquax; it starts right in at once; and by correcting faulty elimination, searches out the poisons and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that may be the cause of rheumatism, out of the body through the natural channels.

Druggists everywhere guarantee it as above in every instance.—Adv.

CHURCH AUDITORIUM IS CROWDED FOR SERVICES

An unprecedented audience each night is evidence of the success of the revival now in progress at Pilgrim Holiness Church under the direction of Rev. Coby Bradshaw and Rev. Helena Sanborn, both of Indiana. At the service last night, the text, "Be sure your sin will find you out," was the service last night.

ATTEND IN BODY

Rail Class Present at Trinity Baptist Revival

Members of the Rail Sunday School Class, Trinity Baptist Church, attended the evangelistic service at the church last night in a body. H. C. Gillespie of Wilmington, O., who is conducting the services, spoke on the subject, "What Every Man in Marion Has Done" from Romans 3:23. "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God."

Reverend Gillespie said in part, "Sin originated with Satan, entered the world through Adam, and is universal. Christ alone excepted, incurs the penalty of spiritual and physical death and has no remedy but in the sacrificial death of Christ." Two selections were sung by the Organized Male Quartet.

The subject for tonight will be "What Everyone in Marion is Doing." Members of three churches of the Girls' World Wide Guild will attend as a special delegation.

DONAHEY STAND ON PENCE LAW HIT BY WARNER

Ohio G. O. P. Chief Charges Governor Practically Repudiated Campaign Promise

In a statement issued at Columbus yesterday, Fred W. Warner of this city, chairman of the state Republican committee, assailed Governor Donahey for recommendations made in a message sent to the legislature, particularly in reference to the Pence law and other statutes regulating control of public utilities.

Warner charged that in outlining his views on the Pence law Governor Dona-hey practically repudiated his promise made in the campaign last fall. It is the Pence law which gives the utility companies the right to collect increased rates refund bonds. A proposal for the repeal of this part of the law is now pending before the legislature, government in behalf of the repeal being led by the Ohio City Solicitors Association, one of the officers of which is former Solicitor Grant E. Mooney of Marion.

"Losing Faith" "The Pence law is wholly indefensible," Warner declared. "Both parties through their gubernatorial candidates advocated its repeal. It is humiliating to find any expectation on this subject after confidence of the voters has been obtained and the officers elected. We are approaching a state where the citizenship is losing all faith in the honesty of political arguments."

"Candidates should be made to deal fairly with their constituents and repudiation or violation of a campaign promise ought to be sufficient grounds for impeachment," was one of Warner's pointed statements. "What is needed in public life and what ought to be prized above every other virtue in public service is common honesty. When public officers institute a program of following this principle there will be little or no difficulty in interesting the general citizenship in elections."

This statement followed comment upon lack of interest in elections on the part of a large percentage of the voters.

"If our chief executives are permitted to make campaigns upon certain issues and principles and then within a day or two after their non-in-law has been placed in one of the most important positions in the state, about face and advocates a view that is directly opposite, it is almost certain to offend the good citizenship that they will hardly deem it worth while to go to elections."

In the opening part of his statement, Warner had made mention of Donahey's non-in-law having been appointed by the governor to membership in the public utilities commission.

"Family Institution" "Since Governor Donahey's non-in-law has been on the utilities commission," the Republican chairman declared, "there has been a complete about face on the governor's part and we find him working hand in glove with the special interests in consummation of all the various things about which he has complained prior to the time when the utilities commission became a family institution."

References made in the governor's recent message to slot machine gambling were termed "yelling at a blind cow in order to divert attention from the real menace—race track gambling" by Warner, who declared the governor by his vetoes hampered the utilities commission during his previous terms. It is under the provisions of the Pence law, which was the basis of much of Warner's criticism of the governor's message, that increased gas and telephone rates are now being collected from residents of Marion and other Ohio cities. Companies here have filed bonds to guarantee refunds to customers in case the rates are finally cancelled. Opponents of the bond provision claim that it does not provide absolute assurance of refunds and that it is based upon a principle unfair to the public. Enactment of the repeal has been predicted, although utilities companies are making a determined fight against it.

His latest achievement is qualifying as an expert rifle and pistol shot, both feats accomplished in one day. He now is a pastor in a Spokane church and also chaplain of the 161st regiment of Washington guards.

THIRD TERM ISSUE MAY BE FOUGHT IN SENATE

Senator La Follette Declares He Will Battle for Vote on Measure

Washington, Feb. 23—The third term issue, revived by rumors that President Coolidge plans to seek a re-nomination and re-election in 1928 may be well thrashed out in the senate, it appeared today, through debate on the La Follette resolution, which would put the senate on record against three terms for any president.

A sharply divided senate awaited a vote on the resolution but Senator La Follette declared it was favored by a sufficient number of senators to insure its adoption. He served warning, too, that he intended to fight for a vote on the measure even though administration leaders showed a disposition to sidetrack it in order to save the president from embarrassment.

The resolution, after setting forth how George Washington had established the precedent of serving only two terms as president, declared "any departure from this time-honored custom would be unwise, unpatriotic and fraught with peril to our free institutions."

The resolution aroused the united opposition of administration senators although the insurgents were inclined to favor it. The Democrats also split upon it, although not from any desire to support Coolidge for a third term. Some democratic leaders privately wish the president would seek re-election in the belief that any Democrat can defeat him on the third term issue. Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic floor leader, recently announced his party would "welcome" an opportunity to fight out the 1928 campaign on the third term issue.

To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

AGAIN IN BIG TEN TIE

By walling Chicago last night on the Ann Arbor court, Michigan University basketball team again stepped into a tie with Wisconsin for the lead in the Western Conference cup title race. Michigan remained undefeated in the conference until two weeks ago when Purdue eagles won their game. Indiana repeated the act next week and Michigan slipped into second place. When Ohio State came through with a victory over the leading Hoosiers last night and Michigan again won a game, the latter team once more rose to power. Wisconsin goes up and down with the Wolverines, winning each time Michigan turns in a victory and dropping a game every time Michigan loses.

CHANGE IN GOLF DATES HELPS U. S. PLAYERS

Golfers of This Country Will Go To England This Year

London, Feb. 23.—British golfers are relieved and glad that the dates for the American and Open Championships have been altered so that the dates will not clash.

It is hoped that this will mean not only that there will be a big influx of American golfers to St. Andrews, but that the team of British professionals will make the proposed journey to the United States and play in the American Open.

It will also mean that a number of the most important tournaments in Britain—which usually take place after the Open—will be put forward, so that the leading British players will be able to get plenty of first-class practice before the big event.

One drawback to the Open being played at St. Andrews is that it is an open course and no entrance fee can be charged, which makes the risk of an over-jarve gallery an important one. On the other hand, most of the St. Andrews spectators are keen golfers and likely to obey the stewards without question. In any event it is to be hoped that there will not be the slightest repetition of the scenes at Prestwick of two years ago.

Chicago Baseball Clubs To Be In Uniform Monday

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Those Chicago-based Cubs and White Sox will be in uniform Monday.

The Braves leave here tomorrow for spring training camp at Catalina Island off the Southern California coast and the Stockings hop off Saturday for headquarters at Shreveport, La.

Twenty-eight men will make the trip south with Manager Ray Schalk and thirty clubs will join owner William Wrigley and Manager Joe McCarthy in the land of the flying fish.

New Outfielders Needed
Although a content separates the Magnolia-hung camp of the Sox and the Orange scented practice ground of the Braves the problems of McCarthy and Schalk are identical—each needs a new infield.

Practically unchanged 1926 outfielders and pitching and catching staffs will be used by the Chicago teams this season and present hopes of both hinges around revamped infields.

On Elwood English, Toledo's "boy wonder" of the American Association, McCarthy is hitching his star.
Playing English at shortstop with the veteran Cuban at second, Adams at third and Grimm at first will probably be the Irish pilot's initial move in California.

Ward Red Hot
Aaron Ward, obtained in a trade from the Yankees, is heralded as the best bet of Schalk in his infield shake-up and the former New Yorker is figured certain to get first try at second base—for years the berth of Eddie Collins, who wears a Philadelphia Athletics uniform this year.

Willie Kamm, the great San Francisco, has no serious competition at third.

WHAT MAKES A CIGAR POPULAR?

Some claim it is the blend; others say it is the selecting and curing of the tobacco; still others maintain it is the fragrance or the burn of a cigar that appeals its popularity.

Even in our own organization there is a difference of opinion as to the main reason for the growing demand for San Felice at 5c. Is it the special combination of tobacco used, the delightful aroma, the smoothness, or the mellowness? In your opinion, Mr. Smoker, which feature is it that has won so many new friends that we have been compelled to double and triple the production on San Felice within the past few months. ## STATE DEFEATS INDIANA; TWO IN BIG TEN TIE

Michigan and Wisconsin in Conference Lead as Hoosiers Drop

Chicago, Feb. 23.—From our deadline into another appears to be the order for the Big Ten University teams battling for the basketball supremacy of the Western Conference. Today finds Michigan and Wisconsin tied for first place, each with six games won and two lost.

This situation resulted from a trio of games played last night. The most surprising upset was the defeat of Indiana, on the Hoosiers' own floor, by Ohio State. The score was 27 to 16. The Buckeyes had been rated a setup for the fast stepping Hoosiers. Until this defeat, Indiana was leading the field, holding a half game advantage over Michigan, Wisconsin, Purdue and Iowa, all tied for second place.

Michigan forged to the front once more by sweeping Chicago, 51 to 23. The game was played at Ann Arbor. Wisconsin broke its second place tie with Iowa by trouncing the Hawks, 24 to 21. The Badgers had the advantage by playing on their home floor.

CELEBRATE JUBILEE

The Pastime A. C. of New York City, which has just celebrated its golden jubilee, has developed many athletes of national fame during the fifty years of its existence.

The point I am trying to make is that if the Davis Cup series had been postponed by two days, there isn't much argument about the statement that, at this moment, we probably wouldn't be concerned at all about the Davis Cup.

At first base Echink intends to watch a fight between Early Shook, giant Californian, and John Clancy, Illinois youth, who looked good the latter part of last year after possessing in the Ozark bushes around Little Rock, Ark.

Davis Cup to Leave This Country Before 1928, Says Walsh; France to Get It

Tilden May Be Ready to Defend United States' Interests, but Johnston Is Out and So is Williams; LaCoste and Borotra Most Dangerous of French Tennis Stars

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Feb. 23.—The United States Lawn Tennis Association today made a clean breast of a state of affairs which the writer firmly believes will cause the Davis Cup to leave the country before 1928. An official challenge, according to the tennis association, has been filed by France, which failed to take over the cup last year by 4 to 1 in matches but only two to nothing in days. I don't see how the French can miss this time.

Tilden might stake himself as one last flourish but the price is against him on what he showed the last time out. Johnston definitely is not the man he was. Neither is Williams. Richards and Howard Kinsley have turned square. There may be other Davis Cup prospects in the offing but the writer knows them not.

The idea is that the American tennis amateur, supreme these eight years, is going; the French are coming. They probably will meet more than half-way in the 1927 show down.

I prefer to estimate the French defeat last year in days rather than matches. As the challenge round was played, France began play just two days short of its stride, and America kept the cup by winning the first three matches. But on the final day, LaCoste, who had been a pitiful figure against Johnston, suddenly became unbeatable against Tilden and that was the start of it.

Place Three Men

Within a week, France had placed three men out of a possible four in the semifinal round of our cherished national championship and in the course of human events, LaCoste became champion by winning the final from his countryman, Borotra. The same condition with the same result prevailed in our indoor championships earlier in the year, so the thing wasn't one of those terrible mistakes.

The point I am trying to make is that if the Davis Cup series had been postponed by two days, there isn't much argument about the statement that, at this moment, we probably wouldn't be concerned at all about the Davis Cup.

At San Francisco—Jimmy McLaughlin of Vancouver, and Tommy Collin of San Francisco, drew, ten rounds.

At New York—Bryce Flowers of New Rochelle, N. Y., outpointed Charley Bowen of New York, ten rounds. Danny Terris, New York, won decision over Jimmy Connolly of Boston, six rounds. Eddie Roberts of New York knocked out Frankie Sampson of New York in the fourth round.

At Albany, N. Y.—Jack Warren of Chicago won decision over Jack Herman of Yonkers, N. Y., twelve rounds.

defense of the cup. In fact, it isn't likely that we would have any cup to defend.

The French apparently are trying to convince the better advantage this time, since they failed to declare themselves as to whether they wished to play in the European or American Zones. If the former, they probably would arrive here about the same time as they did in 1926 with an equal possibility of being underdone at the big moment. If the latter, they would come to America in early July and might discover that they couldn't stand up under a long siege of midsummer heat. The additional expense of the latter plan also is an item for their consideration.

Whatever the decision, it probably will be the correct one, for the French have been coming here these five or six years and should have the climate figured by this time. They won't need much else.

LaCoste and Borotra are a team in themselves, capable, it seems to me, of taking issue with our aging defenders. But this pair is by no means all. Cochet is hardly a strider behind either of them and a new man, Pierre Landry, would seem to take nothing from the general excellence of the cast.

These are young men. Ours are fast verging on athletic senility. I don't think it would be any contest if it wasn't for the fact that all leaders must beat two opponents—our players and our climate.

Jubilee's Pardner

A Story of Boyhood Adventures

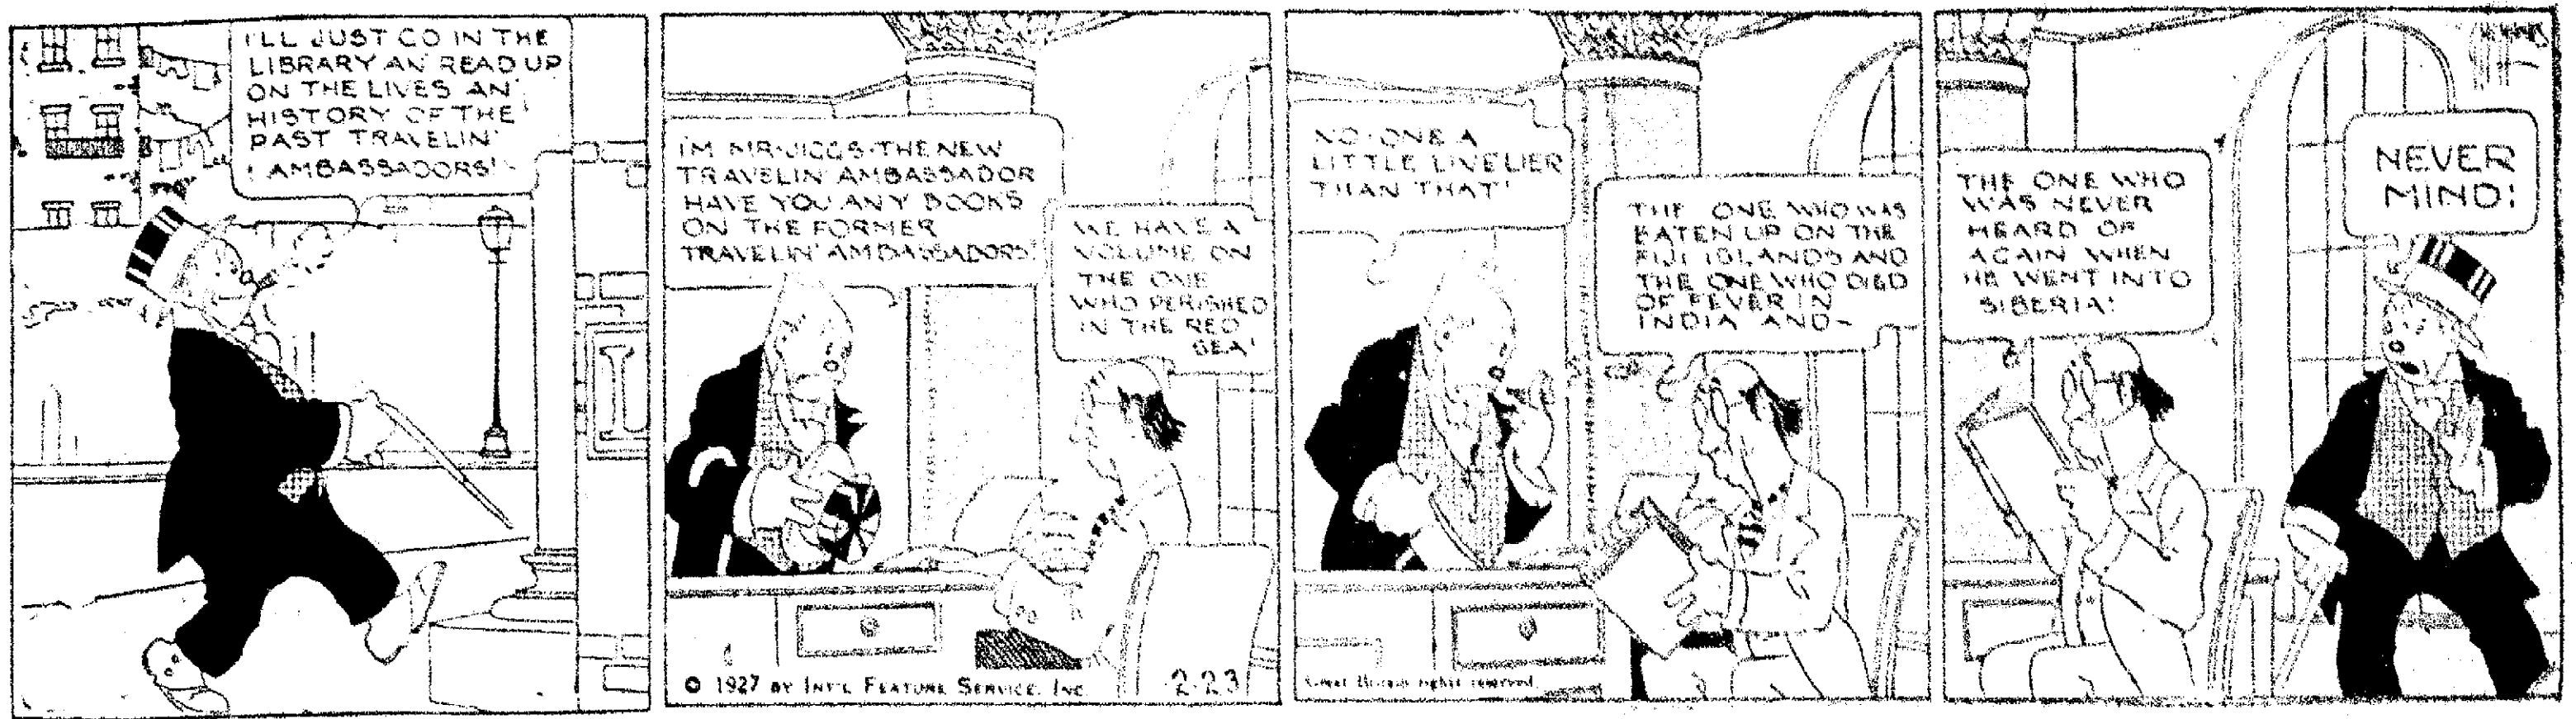

BY JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS

It would be dandy if there was a George Washington for every day in the year except Saturdays and Sundays. As I whispered to Jubilee when he and me woke up this morning when I opened the window to let him know by the rope in his teeth it wasn't warm but it was so much warmer than it was when it was colder than it was when it was warmer than it was. It had not of been Washington's birthday we would not get to town to see the fight between the gravel men and the other man, and would not get to see how two gravel men look when they look sorry. Two gravel men can look more sorry than one gravel man. And that is because they have each other to look at.

When we were eating breakfast my mother said she was reading that gentlemanly prefer blondes, and my grandfather said if they do they are fools, and my mother asked him why, and he said, "Because they get dirty quicker." And my mother and uncle and grandfather laughed, and then my mother said, "I thought that was why they liked them." Then my mother and my grandfather laughed, and my father and uncle and grandfather stopped.

Uncle Wiggily and His Friends

Baby Bunty came hopping home from school one afternoon so excited that she could hardly get up the front steps of Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow, where the little rabbit girl was visiting.

"Oh! Oh!" gasped Bunty as she opened the front door. "You'll never guess what has happened!"

"Did the Hollow Stump School burn down?" asked Uncle Wiggily. He had just come in from adventuring, and with not much luck, for nothing happened him except that he slipped on the ice and bumped his pink, twinkling nose. "But that," as the rabbit gentleman said, "was an accident and not an adventure."

"Oh, no, the school didn't burn down, nor get up," answered Bunty with a laugh. "I'll have to tell you, as you'd never guess. I am to be a fairy princess in a little play the Lady Mouse teacher wants us to give in school Friday afternoon. And, being a fairy princess, you must get me a lot of jewels to wear. Uncle Wiggily, I must have diamonds and rubies and emeralds and sapphires and all manner of sparkling stones to wear in the fairy princess play."

"Jewels?" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "Where am I to get diamonds, sapphires and rubies?"

"Oh, they don't need to be real, you dear old rabbit!" exclaimed Baby Bunty, who seemed to grow up all of a sudden. "Just make believe jewels will do. You can get them at the three and four-cent store."

"Yes, I suppose I could do that," agreed Uncle Wiggily. "But tell me about you going to be a fairy princess, Bunty."

KEEP COUGHS OUT OF 'DANGER ZONE'

Coughing irritates the throat and makes you cough more. The more you cough, the harder it is to stop. And a cough threatens serious trouble if you let inflammation get into your bronchial tubes. It may spread into the "danger zone"—for these tubes lead directly into your lungs. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops coughs quickly—almost instantly in spasmodic attacks. And it does far more; it brings lasting relief as its soothing, healing powers are absorbed deep down into the bronchial tubes, penetrating through and through the irritated membranes.

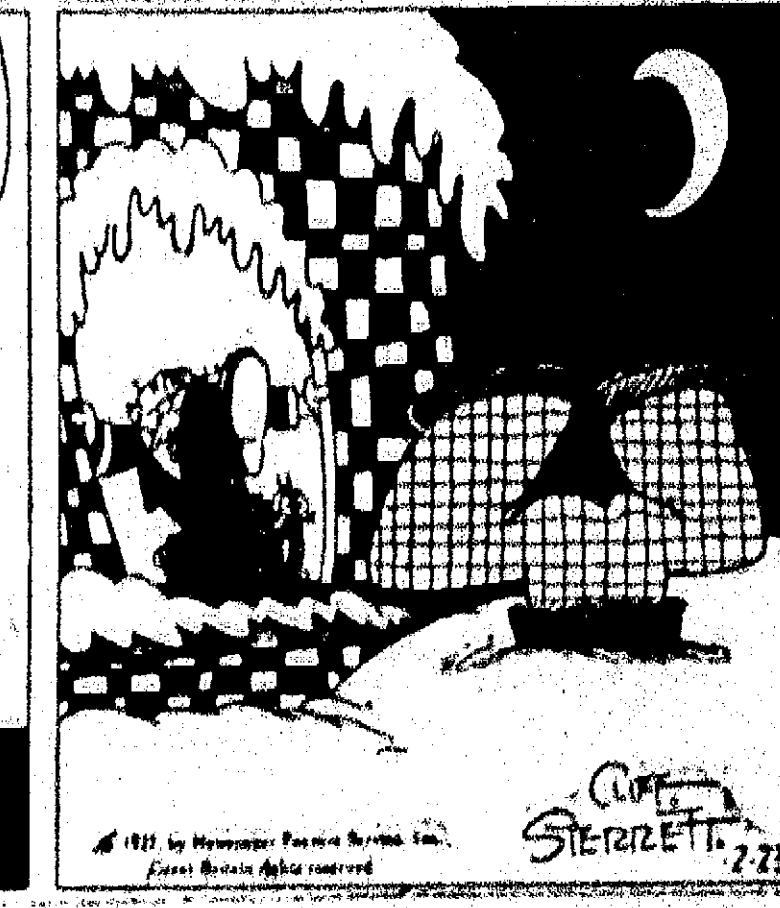

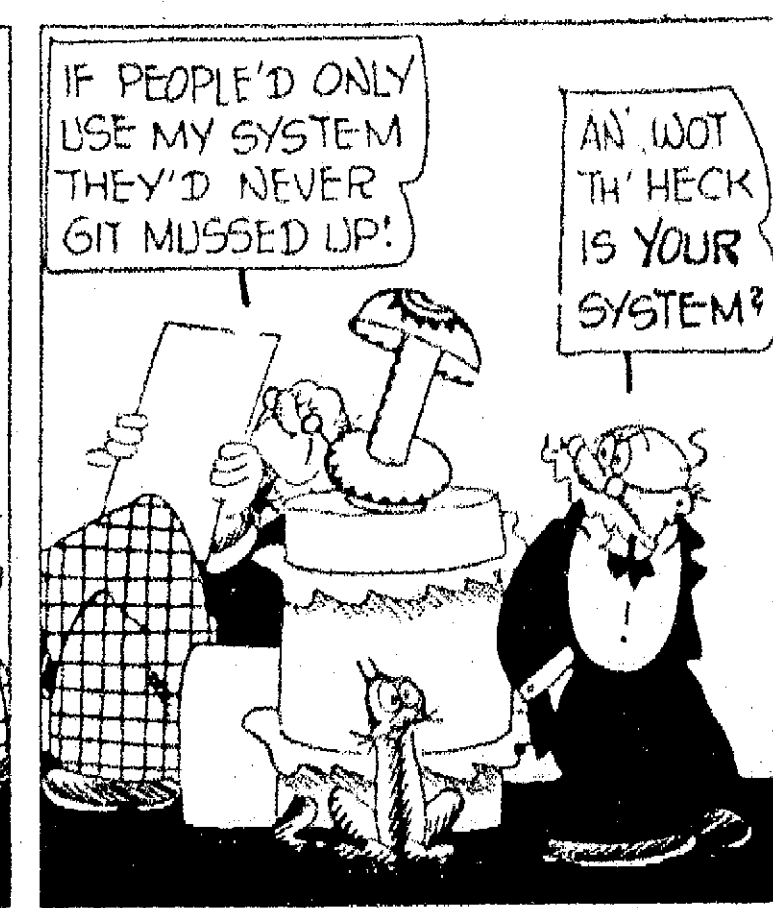

With the first swallow of Cherry Pectoral you feel its comforting warmth as it loosens up the tightness of congestion. It stimulates expectation—Nature's helpful plan for getting rid of phlegm and germs. Absorbed into the membranes themselves, this concentrated, hospital-proved medicine not only stops your cough but corrects the cause. And that is why relief is immediate and lasting.

Cherry Pectoral is pleasant, safe and dependable—for children and grown people. At all drug stores—10c; twice as much, $1.00. 441b

The demonstration, a new department in the school exhibitions, was one of the most successful.

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your skin a real chance to get well.

You've probably been, like a lot of other people, convinced that the only thing to use was an ointment or salve (some of them are very good) but in the big majority of cases these sticky salves simply clog the pores and the condition primarily remains the same.

Go to Henney & Cooper, Bradley's Drug Store or any other good druggist today and get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil.

The very first application will give you relief and a few short treatments will thoroughly convince you that by sticking faithfully to it for a short while your skin troubles will be a thing of the past.

Don't expect a single bottle to do it all at once but one bottle we know will show you beyond all question that you have at last discovered one way to restore your skin to perfect health.

Remember that Moone's Emerald Oil is a clean, powerful penetrating Antiseptic Oil that does not stain or leave a greasy residue and that it must give complete satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded.—Adv.
